MISS DICKEY.

She Replies to Her Pastor's Letter.

Meeting of Reform to Both Men and Women.

The Ministers Report of April 10th publishes the following account of the meeting of the Reform to Both Men and Women, held at the residence of Miss Dickey, on Tuesday evening, the 10th inst.

At 7 o'clock the doors were opened, and a large number of ladies and gentlemen were present. The meeting was presided over by Miss Dickey, who read a letter from her pastor, Mr. [Name], in which he expressed his regret that he was unable to attend the meeting, and his hope that the ladies would be able to do so.

Miss Dickey then read a letter from her father, Mr. [Name], in which he expressed his approval of the meeting, and his hope that it would be a success. She then read a letter from her mother, Mrs. [Name], in which she expressed her approval of the meeting, and her hope that it would be a success.

After the reading of the letters, Miss Dickey proposed that the meeting should be held at the residence of Miss Dickey, on Tuesday evening, the 10th inst.

The meeting was then adjourned until the next meeting, which will be held at the residence of Miss Dickey, on Tuesday evening, the 17th inst.
